

Year 1 Knowledge organiser
Spring 2– Oceans and Seas

Continents

Europe—The continent between Asia and the Atlantic Ocean. Europe is in the Eastern Hemisphere.

Asia—The largest continent, in the Eastern Hemisphere.

Africa—The second largest continent, south of Europe. It is in the Eastern Hemisphere.

South America - The fourth largest continent. It is in the Western Hemisphere.

North America— The third largest continent. It is in the Western Hemisphere.

Australasia—The continent of is often referred to as Australia. It has about 28 countries and island groups.

Oceans and Seas

Pacific	Celtic Sea
Atlantic	North Sea
Indian	Irish Sea
Arctic	Baltic Sea
Southern

Vocabulary

continent	A very area of land that includes all the islands with it.
Ocean	Body of salt water covering the earth’s surface.
Sea	As above.
Layers	One thickness or fold over another.
Habitat	A place where a plant or animal naturally or normally lives or grows.
Beach	A sandy or gravelly part of the shore of a body of water.
Shore	The land along the edge of a body of water.
Cliff	A high steep surface of rock, earth or ice.
Port
Harbour	